

earth month

UPCOMING ON CAMPUS

CRAFTING w JOSEPH BROWN with Craft Guild, Green House & Sewanee Herbarium

FRIDAY, 4/2 - Meet at 2pm @ Green House Lawn: This is Part 1 of a 3 part event. Join us on the lawn.

MORNING BIRD WALK with Natural History Society

SATURDAY, 4/3 - 8am @ Lake Cheston Pavilion: We'll walk over to Mager's Cove via the connector trail for a beautiful morning view of the valley (And hopefully more birds!) Bring sturdy shoes, water, and binoculars if you have them (OESS has purchased a few pairs we can lend)

SHAKERAG HOLLOW WILDFLOWERS with SOP

SATURDAY, 4/3 - Meet at 11am meet @ Green's View: This roughly 4-mile loop will take hikers down below the bluff into stunning Shakerag Hollow, where we'll marvel at the spring wildflowers, old-growth hardwoods, and babbling brooks. Please bring hiking boots or tennis shoes, a water bottle, and a buddy! Note that this trail involves some steep terrain hiking up out of Shakerag

JAM, JAM & JAMS with CoHo, Green House & Music House

SATURDAY, 4/3 - 10am @ CoHo: What to expect: Edible, Audible & Wearable Jams. Bring your appetite, favorite instrument, and wear your pajamas. Join us for a jam in your jams eating jam!

BUILD A FAIRY HOUSE with Environmental Resident, Emma

SATURDAY, 4/3 - 11am, @ Abbot's Alley Pavilion on So. Carolina: Build your own miniature houses using reclaimed boxes and decorate with paint, paper mache, tiny natural treasures you find outdoors.

WALK THE WATERSHED with Sewanee Water Campaign

TUESDAY, 4/6 - 3:30pm, @ Abbot's Alley Entrance near ATO House: Build your own miniature houses using reclaimed boxes and decorate with paint, paper mache, tiny natural treasures you find outdoors.

MORNING BIRD WALK with Natural History Society

SATURDAY, 4/10 - 8am @ The Cross: Bring sturdy shoes, water, and binoculars if you have them (OESS has purchased a few pairs we can lend)

WILDFLOWER WALK with Natural History Society & SOP

SATURDAY, 4/10 - 2pm meet @ the University Gates: We've all heard it or seen it around campus regularly: wildflowers of Shakerag Hollow, but this is your chance to explore this magical part of campus as part of a tour led by Dr. Jonathan Evans, our resident Plant Ecology professor.

INVESTMENT / DIVESTMENT TALK with Dr Elrod, SoCo Grads, & SoCo

WEDNESDAY, 4/10 - 6pm @ ZOOM: Join Robert Birdsey C'98, Mallory Graves C'16, Dr Elrod, and SoCo for a stimulating discussion of investment life after Sewanee.

NIGHT HIKE - NORTHERN P-TRAIL with SOP

WEDNESDAY, 4/14 - 7pm @ SOP: On this approximately 4-mile long, beginner-friendly hike, we'll tour a segment of the northern Perimeter Trail to scope out some stars and listen to the nighttime sounds of the forest. Come amble with us through the oaks and laurel trees as we bask in the crisp evening air along the bluffline above Deak Cove, and beyond. Please bring hiking boots or tennis shoes and a water bottle!

MORNING BIRD WALK with Natural History Society

SATURDAY, 4/17 - 8am @ The Cross: Bring sturdy shoes, water, and binoculars if you have them (OESS has purchased a few pairs we can lend)

POWER SHIFT - CLIMATE ACTIVISM with Judith Marklin & MANY Others

SATURDAY, 4/16 THRU 4/25 - Times Vary @ Virtual Convergence: This virtual gathering is for all young activists with a specific focus on climate justice and intersectionality. There will be trainings, BIPOC art spaces, a virtual job/opportunity fair, movement history sessions, amazing headlines, including Angela Davis (!!!), and a performance by Tank & the Bangas. Power Shift Convergence: Check out the program here Email Judith to register for free: markjd@sewanee.edu

ARTHUR KNOLL CLEAN-UP with Sewanee Community Council

SATURDAY, 4/17 - 9am meet @ the Mtn Goat Trailhead: Join us in cleaning up our community as we pick up trash along the roadways and other areas.

CLEAN WATER FIELD DAY with Sewanee Water Campaign

SATURDAY, 4/17 - 12noon @ the Trex Fields: Come play and have fun with field games and the SWC folk to celebrate clean drinking water.

LEG N SALMON with Green House

SATURDAY, 4/17 - TBD @ Green House: These are flamingos. Our super great Leg n Salmon posters aren't ready to reveal yet. BUT, we want you to flock to our lawn for terrific entertainment on Saturday 4/17. Also, buy a poster and register your act with the folks at Green House.

GROWING TOGETHER WITH EARTH with Global Home, OCCU, Interfaith Advisory Council & Sewanee Asian Org

SUNDAY, 4/18 - 2pm @ TBD: Join us in a broad discussion about how our ethical, religious, and cultural views inform our relationship with the planet and its inhabitants, including self.

COMPOSTING @ COHO with CoHo, Univ Farm, & Green House

WEDNESDAY, 4/21 - 4:30pm @ CoHo: CoHo learns to compost with Carolyn Macgregor. Come us in learning and eating a delicious Farm Salad with Garlic Bread and homemade dressing.

EARTH DAY!

THURSDAY, 4/22: Celebrate the Earth today. Go outside and play. Try to live a little lighter on the earth today. Try something new or just be still in nature and listen.

MORNING BIRD WALK with Natural History Society

SATURDAY, 4/24 - 8am @ The Cross: Bring sturdy shoes, water, and binoculars if you have them (OESS has purchased a few pairs we can lend)

5K MTN GOAT TRAIL RUN with Sewanee

SATURDAY, 4/24 - 10am, meet @ Ayers Hall: Join the annual 5K Mountain Goat Trail Run. Follow the link to register: <https://www.mountaingoattrail.org/run/>

Rogation Day Liturgy for Garden Blessing with Creation Care Committee

SUNDAY, 4/24 - 2pm @ the Seminary Garden by Hamilton Hall: Rogation Days are an ancient custom of asking God's blessing of the harvest, of the earth and sea. Refreshments provided following the service.

All Saints Environmental Service with Green House & Creation Care Committee

SUNDAY, 4/25 - 11am @ All Saints Chapel: Join folks from the Green House as they greet and read a selection during this environmentally-focused All Saints Service. A portion of the offering will also go to support a philanthropic organization of Green Houses choice.

Craft / Makers Fair with the Craft Guild & Many Others

WEDNESDAY, 4/28 - 10am - 2pm @ TBD: Drop by the Craft Fair to marvel at its wonders, perhaps purchase some handmade gifts, make a craft of your own, watch demos, or just enjoy a quiet Reading Day with friends.

Thanks for joining us for Earth Month!

Love, Sustain Sewanee