

NEWS FOR SEWANEE FAMILIES

November 2023

We wanted to share some dates of interest, events, and other news with you in this e-newsletter. Let us know what else you might want to see in each issue.

Robert Pearigen Installed as 18th Vice-Chancellor

On a picture-perfect fall afternoon in Sewanee, the University of the South held a service for the formal installation of the University's 18th vice-chancellor and president, Robert W. Pearigen, C'76. The ceremony started with 60 delegates from institutions around the country entering All Saints' Chapel, followed by the University procession, which included current and retired members of the University faculty, four former vice-chancellors, members of Sewanee's governing boards, and bishops of constituent dioceses of the Episcopal Church. ## Sewanee Events Near You

Sewanee Club Events

Families are invited to attend Sewanee Club events across the country. It's a great way to get updates from campus, meet other Sewanee people in your area, and stay connected.

Be on the lookout for these events and join us if you can!

McClurg Annual Thanksgiving Feast - Nov. 16

The Sewanee Dining family is preparing for the annual "Clurgsgiving" meal. Students will feast on turkey and all the fixings, vegan options, and of course, lots of pie! The Spencer Room will be open as usual for open seating but the Refectory and Balcony will be reserved for groups of 10 or 20 to sit together.

Interested in Joining the Sewanee Parents Council?

The Sewanee Parents Council is a group of parents who invest financially and relationally so that the Sewanee family can grow and flourish. Parents Council members gather on campus for two meetings per year and engage in other activities that support Sewanee students as well as our recruitment and philanthropy efforts. If you are interested in joining the council, find more information including how to join by following this link.
