

SEXUAL AND RELATIONAL VIOLENCE RESOURCES

ON-CAMPUS RESOURCES

After-Hours Crisis Line (24/7)
931.598.1700

Call from anywhere in the United States, 24/7 to speak to a licensed therapist immediately in case of crisis.

Counseling and Psychological Services

- Free, confidential crisis and/or ongoing therapy, and referral services via walk-in appointments, scheduled appointments, and crisis appointments.
- Open 8 a.m.–4:30 p.m. Monday–Friday.
- Contact via Patient Portal, or by calling 931.598.1325.

University Health Services

- Free, confidential physical exam, Plan B, pregnancy testing, STD testing, and referrals to other specialized services. Free, confidential Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner exam available upon request; preserves forensic evidence for law enforcement, can be submitted under an appropriate alias identifier to maintain confidentiality.
- Open 8 a.m.–4:30 p.m., Monday–Friday.
- Contact via Patient Portal, or by calling 931.598.1777.

Reporting and Other Resources

- Online Reporting Form to Title IX Director and Dean of Students: ReportSexualMisconduct.sewanee.edu.
- These resources and further information can also be found in the University's Title IX & Sex Discrimination Policy: new.sewanee.edu/files/resources/sex-discrimination-policy.pdf.
- University Staff contacted through any of these resource avenues can assist you with locating and accessing resources in your local area if you are learning or working remotely at this time.
- If you are seeking support services and have any accessibility needs or concerns, please contact Matt Brown, director of student accessibility services.
- LiveSafe Mobile Safety App: new.sewanee.edu/campus-life/flourishing/wellness-commons/university-wellness-center/livesafe-app.
- The Office of the University Chaplain and the Senior Associate University Chaplain are confidential resources and can be contacted via their university email addresses: chaplain@sewanee.edu, pwgray@sewanee.edu, mmhartle@sewanee.edu.
- Dean of Students Office*: 931.598.1229 or after hours for crisis at 931.598.1111.
- Sewanee Police*: 931.598.1111.
- Project Director for Campus Sexual Assault Prevention Maria Michonski*: 931.598.1037 or mamichon@sewanee.edu.

*Non-confidential resource

OFF-CAMPUS RESOURCES

Sexual Assault Center of Nashville

- 800.879.1999 Crisis Line or www.sacenter.org.
- Free medical legal exam (aka “rape kit”); free testing for STIs and pregnancy
- Free transportation assistance as needed.
- Referrals to other needed services, like advocacy, legal, or psychological services.
- Trauma-informed therapy services.
- Advocacy services for support during exams, information on and support during any legal process pursued, education, and technical support/referrals.

Advocacy Resources

- Haven of Hope: 800.435.7739. Located in Manchester, Tennessee.
- RAINN: 800.656.4673, www.rainn.org.

Rape Crisis Center of Chattanooga

- Free SANE exams for forensic evidence collection.
- Professional advocacy services.
- Case Management services.
- Services available 24/7.
- Free 24-hour phone advocacy services at 423.755.2700.

Other Community Resources

- Franklin County Sheriff's Department: 931.962.0123.
- Sexual Assault and Family Violence Services: 800.346.5032.