

Possible Threat To Campus Community

The university is investigating a report of non-consensual sexual intercourse. The reported incident was committed by a person known to the survivor. We have reason to believe that the suspect is a repeat offender.

Date of Incident: 02/09/2019

Time: Unknown

Date Reported to Police: 02/20/2019

In compliance with the provisions of the federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security and Campus Statistics Act of 1998, the Sewanee Police are giving notice of possible criminal activity reported to have occurred on campus. Please keep in mind that crimes are not always reported to the police department on the day or at the time the crime actually occurred.

Reporting Encouraged

Please help keep our community respectful and safe by reporting any sexual misconduct or other instances of misconduct to the Sewanee Police at 931-598-1111, or to the University Dean of Students Office at _

<http://www.sewanee.edu/student-life/dean-of-students-office/report-an-incident/>

How to Help

- Be someone who helps educate, inform, and intervene so that Sewanee is a safe and welcoming community for all.
- Be aware of options for support and care on campus; contact University Wellness Center during business hours at ext. 1270 or after hours call the mental health emergency service at 931.598.1700
- Listen, believe, and support someone who discloses victimization. Never blame the victim.
- Talk to friends honestly and openly about sexual assault.
- Trust your instincts; if something looks like a bad situation, it probably is.
- Be aware if someone is deliberately trying to intoxicate, isolate, or corner someone.
- Get in the way or create a distraction by drawing attention or separating them.
- Check the LiveSafe App for more information on what to do and how to help.

We all share responsibility for this community, and we can all prevent harmful acts.

Marie Ferguson
Chief of Police
Sewanee Police Department
931.598.1111