The people sit. Paul Daniel Pearigen, C'83, reads the First Lesson.

THE FIRST LESSON..... Proverbs 2:1-11

Taken from the wisdom tradition of the Hebrew Bible (or Christian Old Testament), this reading speaks to the value of wisdom, knowledge, and understanding.

My child, if you accept my words, and treasure up my commandments within you, making your ear attentive to wisdom and inclining your heart to understanding; if you indeed cry out for insight, and raise your voice for understanding; if you seek it like silver, and search for it as for hidden treasures—then you will understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God. For the Lord gives wisdom; from God’s mouth come knowledge and understanding; God stores up sound wisdom for the upright; The Lord is a shield to those who walk blamelessly, guarding the paths of justice and preserving the way of God’s faithful ones. Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity, every good path; for wisdom will come into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul; prudence will watch over you; and understanding will guard you.

The people remain seated while the combined choir, made up of members of Schola Cantorum of the School of Theology, Sewanee Praise, and the University Choir sing the University Psalm.

PSALM 133 Joseph Running (1917–2016)

Behold, how good and joyful a thing it is for kindred to dwell together in unity!
It is like the precious oil upon the head, that ran unto the beard
And went down to the skirts of his clothing
Like as the dew of Hermon which fell upon the hill of Zion.
For there the Lord promised his blessing,
And life forevermore, life forevermore, life forevermore, Amen.

The Second Lesson is read by Robert Wesley Pearigen Jr., C'17.

SECOND LESSON..... I Peter 3:8-11, 15b-16a

This text, taken from the Christian New Testament, is a set of general instructions, encouraging its audience to persevere in good works and humility for the benefit of all.

Finally, all of you, have unity of spirit, sympathy, love for one another, a tender heart, and a humble mind. Do not repay evil for evil or abuse for abuse; but, on the contrary, repay with a blessing. It is for this that you were called—that you might inherit a blessing. For “Those who desire life and desire to see good days, let them keep their tongues from evil and their lips from speaking deceit; let them turn away from evil and do good; let them seek peace and pursue it...” Always be ready to make your defense to anyone who demands from you an accounting for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and reverence.

CHOIR ANTHEM Lord, hear our prayer Moses Hogan (1957–2003)

Oh Lord, please hear my prayer
In the morning when I rise
It's your servant bound for glory
Oh dear Lord, please hear my prayer

When my work on earth is done
And you come to take me home
Just to know that I am bound for glory
And to hear you say, "Well done."

Oh Lord, please hear my prayer
Keep me safe within your arms
It's your servant bound for glory
Oh dear Lord please hear my prayer

Done with sin and sorrow
Have mercy, mercy
Amen.

The people stand for the prayers.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Chaplain The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Chaplain Let us pray.

Chaplain and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

After the Vice-Chancellor is vested in the Robe of Office by former Vice-Chancellors Samuel Ruthven Williamson and Joel Luther Cunningham, under whom the 18th Vice-Chancellor served, he kneels and the following prayer is said by the Chancellor.

ALMIGHTY GOD, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy, we pray Thee to bless unto us the solemn purpose of this hour. Let Thy favor rest upon Thy servant, Robert, who now undertakes in Thy name the sacred task of the Vice-Chancellor of this University. Let Thy voice be his guide; Thy purpose his aim; Thy truth his integrity; and Thy wise and loving patience his control. Protect him from the allurements of lesser victories, and keep his eyes fixed upon that vision of the true task, well and faithfully done, which is the passion of all Thy faithful servants. Strengthen him for difficulties and discouragements, for misunderstandings and injustice. Share with him his loneliness. Prove to him that with Thee one can be victorious. Teach him to feel his responsibility without thought of himself, without swerving from his high purpose. Teach him to accept his opportunity with elation of spirit, as he seeks to make this Institution an instrument of light and leading for all who seek its ministrations. We ask this in the name of Thy only begotten Son, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Chancellor introduces the Vice-Chancellor and his family, after which the Vice-Chancellor is seated in his stall.

All remain standing and sing

ALMA MATER, SEWANEE,
My glorious Mother ever be.
I will give my all to thee—
God bless thee to eternity.
Thou canst make me worth the while,
O guide and shelter me,
And all my life, through storm and strife,
My star thou'lt be.

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY GOD, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, we Thy servants implore Thy blessing upon this University. Give the spirit of Wisdom to all those to whom Thou hast given the authority of teaching and of government. Let the students grow in grace day by day; enlighten their minds, purify their hearts, and sanctify their wills. Bless all who have contributed to this institution; and raise up to the University, we humbly pray Thee, a never-failing succession of benefactors; through our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Chancellor then blesses the people.
